

Scholar's Chair

Philosophy Lecture Series invite you to discuss the following topic:

NATURAL LAW:

Source of Convergence between Science and Religion

QUESTIONS TO DISCUSS:

- Is it necessary that science and religion be separated?
- If natural law exists, how does it inform human judgment?
- Does natural law explain the coherence of diversity?

PRESENTERS

Dr. Fatimah Jackson
University of Maryland

Dr. Robert D. Crane
International Institute of Islamic Thought

Dr. Imad ad Dean Ahmed
University of Maryland

Moderated by Ms. Thomasine Williams

Thursday • January 29, 2009 • 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM.

Place: University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland 20742
Woods Hall Conference Room 1102

For more information about The Scholar's Chair:

www.scholarschair.com

Call Khalil Shadeed if you have questions 301-717-5978

DIRECTIONS:

Once on Baltimore Avenue in front of the college turn on to Campus Drive. Then turn left onto Regents Drive. Then turn right onto Chapel Drive. Park in Parking lot Y. Woods Hall is just behind The Skinner building.